SCOUTING

COMPLIMENTS EVERY PASSION—AND BUILDS CHARACTER TOO

HOW SCOUTING PREPARES:

Whether your child dreams of being an athlete, actor, engineer, or entrepreneur, Scouting prepares them for the road ahead—by shaping who they are, not just what they do

FOR ATHLETES:

Scouting teaches discipline, teamwork, and stamina—qualities that carry over to the field and court.

FOR ARTISTS AND PERFORMERS:

Scouts build confidence, communication skills, and creativity through leadership roles, presentations, and public speaking.

FOR HIGH ACHIEVERS:

Scouts learn how to manage time, solve problems, and stay committed to long-term goals—skills that show up in the classroom and beyond.

FOR BUSY FAMILIES

With weekly meetings and flexible scheduling, Scouting is designed to fit alongside other extracurriculars—not replace them.

NFL running back David Montgomery is a proud Eagle Scout. Before the bright lights of the NFL, David spent his youth in Scouting—learning responsibility, discipline, and leadership that shaped his character on and off the field.

“Scouting taught me how to be accountable—to myself, my team, and my community.”

—David Montgomery, Eagle Scout & NFL Player

HOW SCOUTING COMPARES

Scouting stands out by combining the best parts of youth programs—leadership, service, outdoor adventure, STEM, and character building—into one experience. While sports, arts, and clubs focus on a single skill, Scouting develops the whole person through hands-on challenges and youth-led activities that build confidence and responsibility.

With flexible scheduling and year-round engagement, Scouting complements—not competes with—other passions. Many Scouts are also athletes, performers, and scholars—Scouting simply helps them grow stronger in every role they take on.

THE ROLE OF A SCOUT PARENT

Every parent plays a very important role with their Scout. You will be working with your Scout on achievements, attending camp outings together, and having fun with your family! Scouting would not be possible without the parent or guardian's involvement.

You will also be asked to serve as a volunteer with the Cub Scout Pack where your Scout is a member. Whatever time you are able to invest in Scouting – the result is phenomenal! Kids will not only have fun because of your help but will also grow physically, mentally, and in their relationships with other people.

Please take a moment to look over these roles. Please mark what you would be able to help with.
