

Pack 4000 has a new committee chair and a couple of new den leaders. The Pack held a committee meeting to discuss the program year and how they would like to approach recruitment. Ideas are running low. Den leaders seem lost. The Cubmaster has been in the program for 3 years and has been trying to let the committee chair get accustomed to the new role but something needs to be done to pick up the momentum and get the Pack running.

The Cubmaster has called in the Unit Commissioner to help encourage the den leaders and the committee. Where do you begin?
